On fiverr.com, you can find people for any task in the realm of self-publishing, from editing to cover design to publicity. Fees start as low as $5 for simple tasks. ## Self-Publishing Scams

www.google.com/

Never sign a contract or send any money to "publish your book" without extensive internet research. There are many types of scams played on authors, from outright fraud to legitimate companies whose business model is NOT to sell books to the public, but ONLY to sell books and services to the author. The spectrum of self-publishing is vast, from do-everything-yourself to hire-free-lancers-for-specific-tasks to one-company-does-everything-for-you. Before you commit to any self-publishing company, investigate via the internet, seek references, discuss with fellow authors.
